

Resurrection Morn So Fair

Grant Colfax Tular, 1905

Joseph W. Lerman

♩ = 105 Solo, or Semi-Chorus of Girls
Slow and mournfully

1. The day was dark, and all seemed lost when to the tomb They bore the form of
2. The stone be - fore the door was set and firm-ly sealed— A guard was placed to
3. Oh, sad and lone-ly ones to - day, look up! re - joice! The emp - ty tomb with Christ the cru - ci - fied. Loved ones hoped that He would reign— But their watch by night and day, For they feared that from the dead He would prais - es may re - sound, O - ver mount - ain, hill and plain, Let there

Refrain
hopes were all in vain, For they saw Him as up - on the cross He died.
rise as He had said, Or per - chance His own would spir-it Him a - way. But there ring the glad re - frain, Bring-ing hope and cheer wher - ev - er man is found.

dawned a re - sur-rect-ion morn so fair, When the Sav-ior rose from out the tomb; For the an-gels came and rolled the stone a-way, And to - day is ban-ished all earth's gloom.