

Roll the Stone Away

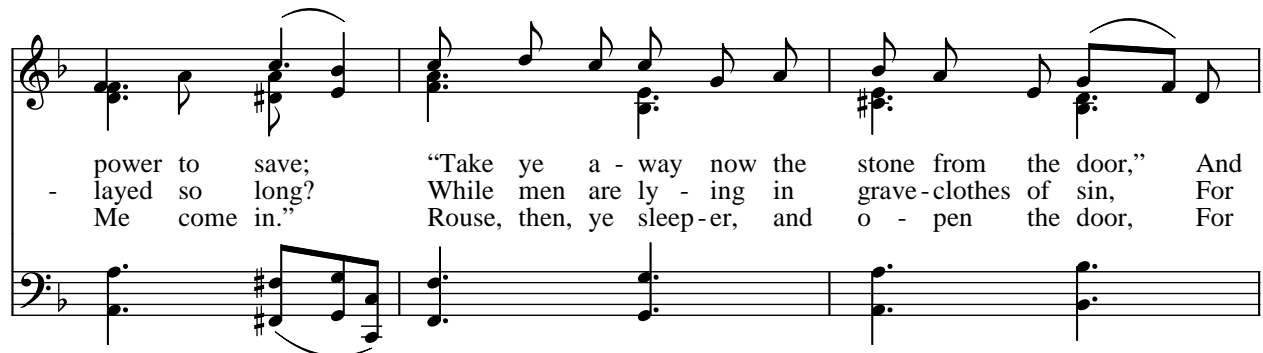

Ora Samuel Marsh, 1908

Charles Howard Marsh

$\text{♩} = 95$

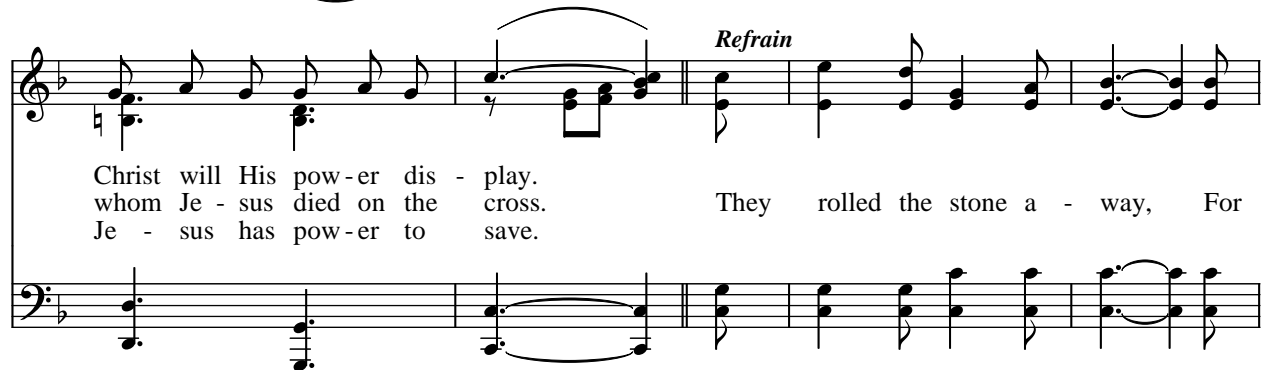

1. Je - sus was stand - ing be - side a grave, Weep - ing, but know - ing His
2. Je - sus is speak - ing to you in song, Ask - ing why you have de - 3. Je - sus is stand - ing by hearts of sin, Knock - ing and say - ing, "Let power to save; "Take ye a - way now the stone from the door," And

- layed so long? While men are ly - ing in grave - clothes of sin, For Me come in." Rouse, then, ye sleep - er, and o - pen the door, For

Refrain

Christ will His pow - er dis - play.
whom Je - sus died on the cross. They rolled the stone a - way, For Je - sus has pow - er to save.

Christ was there that day, And called up - on a man to leave the dark - ened grave. We'll roll the stone a - way, For He is here to - day, And waits to show His might-y power, His power to save.

