

The Royal Telephone

Frederick Martin Lehman, 1919

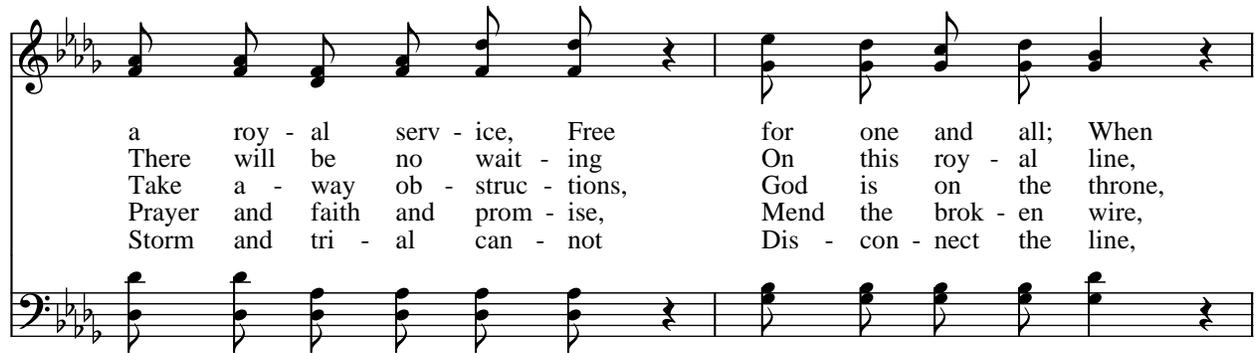

$\text{♩} = 110$

1. Cen - tral's nev - er "busy," Al - ways on the line; You
2. There will be no charg - es, Tel - e - phone is free,
3. Fail to get the an - swer, Sa - tan's crossed your wire,
4. If your line is "ground - ed," And con - nec - tion true
5. Car - nal com - bi - na - tions Can - not get con - trol may hear from Heav - en, Al - most an - y time; 'Tis

It was built for serv - ice, Just for you and me;
By some strong de - lu - sion, Or some base de - sire;
Has been lost with Je - sus, Tell you what to do;
Of this line to glo - ry, An - chored in the soul;

a roy - al serv - ice, Free for one and all; When
There will be no wait - ing On this roy - al line,
Take a - way ob - struc - tions, God is on the throne,
Prayer and faith and prom - ise, Mend the brok - en wire,
Storm and tri - al can - not Dis - con - nect the line,

you get in trou - ble, Give this roy - al line a call.
Tel - e - phone to glo - ry Al - ways an - swers just in time.
And you'll get your an - swer Thru this roy - al tel - e - phone.
Till your soul is burn - ing With the pen - te - cos - tal fire
Held in cons - tant keep - ing By the Fath - er's hand di - vine

Refrain

Tel - e - phone to glo - ry, O what joy di - vine! I can feel the cur - rent, mov - ing on the line, Built by God the Fa - ther for His loved and own,

We may talk to Je - sus thru this roy - al tel - e - phone.

