

Safe Tonight

T. C. Reade, 1900

Mrs. C. E. Rowley

$\text{♩} = 105$

1. Hast - en, Shep - herd, to the mount - ain, Haste to ga - ther in Thy flock;
2. See the storm is draw - ing near - er; Rage the winds, the tor - rents moan;
3. Now the Shep - herd climbs the mount - ain, While the e - choing thun - ders roar;

See the light - ning's fier - y ar - rows! Hear the dread - ful thun - der shock!
Is not one still left to per - ish, Un - pro - tect - ed, and a - lone?
While the storm beats thick and blind - ing, And the mad - dened tor - rents pour.

rit.

Then out spoke the faith - ful Shep - herd: "Long a - go My flock I sought,
And the Shep - herd sad - ly an - swered, "Count - ing care - ful - ly, I find Hark! what means that voice that whis - pers, "Sin - ner, haste to seek the light!

A tempo $\text{♩} = 80$ Refrain

And with - in the fold's pro - tect - ion All of mine I safe - ly brought."
Nine - ty - nine are safe - ly fold - ed— One, a - las! is left be - hind." Safe to - night, Haste, and let the heav'n - ly Shep - herd Find His wan - dering sheep to - night."

safe to-night, Sweet-ly walk-ing in the light; Sin-ner, will you come to Je-sus, And be fold-ed safe to-night?

