

Seeking, Calling, Knocking

C. Murray, 1890

Arthur J. Smith

$\text{♩} = 105$

1. Je - sus is wait - ing to wel - come the wear - y,
 2. Je - sus is wait - ing, He stand - eth and knock - eth,
 3. "Will you not come? you need no pre - pa - ra - tion;
 4. "O, I am yearn - ing to see you un - bur - dened;

Worn with the world's fruit - less striv - ing for peace;
 Call - ing in love un - to each one op - pressed—
 Stay not to think, but come just as you are.
 Death did I suf - fer that you might be free.

Tired with a night - watch that know - eth no morn - ing,
 "Come un - to Me, sin - ner, wear - y and la - den;
 Bring no - thing with you, for love giv - eth free - ly,
 Will you not come, and by life con - se - cra - tion,

Refrain

Sick with a heart - ache that earth can - not ease.
 I will re - ceive you and give you My rest. Je - sus is seek - ing;
 Peace— per - fect peace— that no sor - row can mar. seek - ing, seek - ing,
 Try to win o - thers, and bring them to Me?"

Je - sus is call - ing; Will you not come to Him now?
call - ing, call - ing, to Him now,

Je-sus is knock - ing; Je-sus is wait - ing, Wait-ing to save you now.
knock-ing, knock-ing, wait-ing, wait-ing,

