Shake Hands with Mother Again

W. A. Berry

1. If I should be living when Jesus comes, And could know the day and the hour, I'd like to be standing at mother's tomb When Jesus comes in His power.

2. I'd like to say, "Mother, this is your boy, You left when you went away; And now, my dear mother, it gives me great joy To see you again today."

3. There's coming a time when I can go home To meet my loved ones up there; I can see Jesus up on His throne In that bright city so fair. A glorious thought when we all get there, We never will say, "good-bye."

4. There'll be no more sorrow or pain to bear In that home beyond the sky; A glorious thought when we all get there, We never will say, "good-bye."

Refrain

'Twill be a wonderful, happy day, Up there on the golden strand, When I can hear Jesus my Savior say, "Shake hands with mother again."

Public Domain
Courtesy of the Cyber Hymnal™