

Shines Our Morning Star

Lizzie DeArmond, 1907

W. A. Post

$\text{♩} = 105$

1. Shines the bless-èd sun - light, East - er morn - ing breaks; Un - to life and
 2. Car - ol forth His prais-es, twine your gar - lands gay; See, the tomb of 3. Glows the bless-èd sun - light in our hearts to - day, Roll-ing clouds of glad-ness all the world a - wakes; Now has come sal - va - tion, ev - er full and dark-ness gleams with Heav-en's ray; Tell the sweet-est mes-sage known to mor - tal sor - row from our souls a - way; Gleam-ing out with beau-ty thro' the skies a - free, Christ our Lord has pur - chased bless - èd li - ber - ty.

Refrain

 men, Je - sus, King and Sav - ior, lives and reigns a - gain. Praise Him,
 - far, Shines a - new the ris - en Christ, our Morn - ing Star.

from the grave! Praise Him, strong to save! Songs of glad-ness raise, Ev-er-last-ing praise.