

Some Joyful Day

Thoro Harris, 1906

♩=110

1. Some day, when all life's surges And storms of time are
2. Some day, in realms of glory My Savior I shall
3. Some day, I'll meet the loved ones Who long have passed a-o'er, Our bark shall safely anchor On Canaan's peaceful see, And tell the wondrous story Of Him who died for

- way, And never more be parted Through Heav'n's eternal shore; Some day, when all the tumult And din of war shall me; Some day I'll join the chorus Of angel choirs a-day; Some day, arrayed in brightness, The Lamb shall I be-cease, The saints shall all be gathered With in the port of peace.

- bove, Some day with all the ransomed I'll sing His death-less love.
- hold; Some day in robes of white-ness I'll walk the streets of gold.

Refrain

Some day, O joy - ful day! This world shall pass a - O joy - ful day!

- way; Up - on that fair ce - les - tial shore, We'll shall pass a - way; ce - les - tial shore,

meet to part no more.
 to part no more.

The musical score consists of four systems of music. Each system includes a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature is one flat (B-flat major or D minor). The first system contains the first two lines of lyrics. The second system contains the next two lines. The third system contains the final two lines. The piano accompaniment features chords and moving lines that support the vocal melody. There are several fermatas and slurs used throughout the score.