

Something to Be Done

Mary D. Chellis, 1873

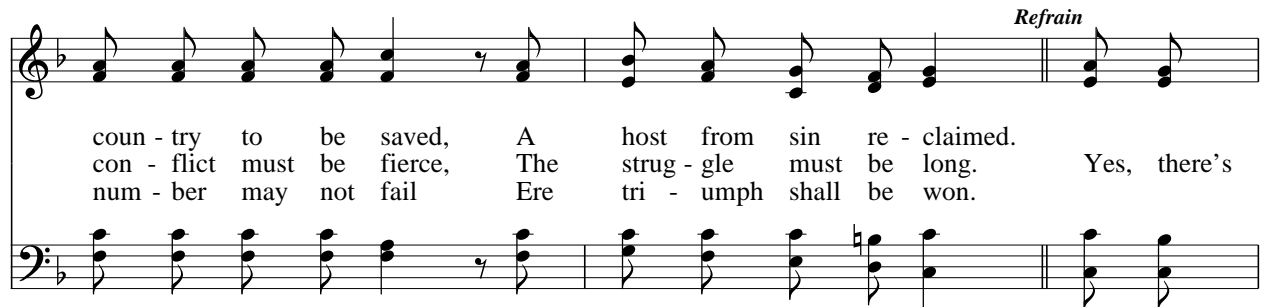

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel, 1898

♩=95

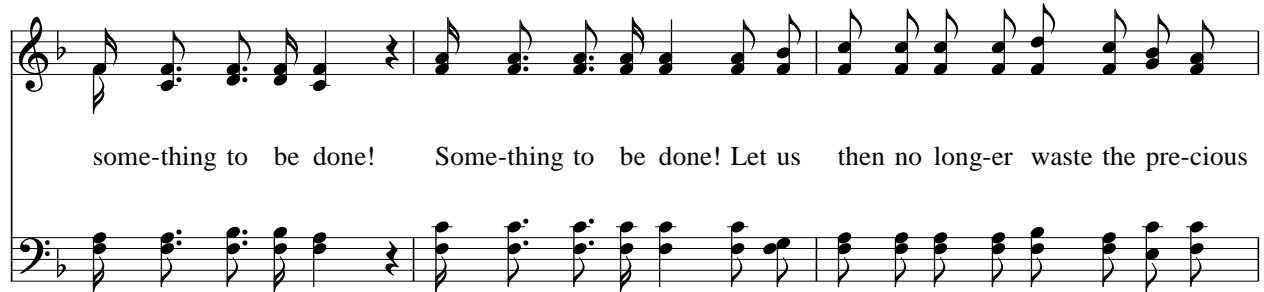

1. There's a bat - tle to be fought, A vict - 'ry to be gained; There's a
2. There's an en - e - my a - broad, So sub - tle and so strong, That the
3. We're re - cruit - ing for the ranks, For years and years to come, That our coun - try to be saved, A host from sin re - claimed.

Refrain

con - flict must be fierce, The strug - gle must be long. Yes, there's num - ber may not fail, Ere tri - umph shall be won.

some-thing to be done! Some-thing to be done! Let us then no long-er waste the pre-cious mo - ments as they fly! Oh, there's some - thing to be done! There's some-thing to be done! There are pre-cious souls to save, there's some-thing to be done!