

The Starry Crown

Joseph Pollard, 1869

William Oscar Perkins

♩ = 95

1. I must not walk in the way of sin, I must nev - er be led a - 2. I must not heed what the world may say, And I nev - er must dread its
3. I must not think I can waste my time, Or in plea - sure my con - science
4. I'll pray for strength in my hour of need, And my Sav - ior my strength will

- stray, A crown is the prize I hope to win, And I'll strive for it ever - y frown, For thro' the same path my Sav - ior trod, I must go to ob - tain my drown. The fear of the Lord must rule my heart, Or I nev - er can wear a be; He helps me to bear each earth - y cross, And He of - fers a crown to day.

Refrain

crown. O that beau - ti - ful crown, That beau - ti - ful star - ry crown; If crown.
me. Beau - ti - ful crown,

I am will - ing to bear the cross, My Sav - ior will give me a crown.