1. In fancy I stood by the shore, one day, Of the beautiful murm'ring sea; I saw the great crowds as they thronged the way Of the Stranger of Galilee; I saw how the man who was blind from birth, In a moment was made to see; The peace-ful, a qui-et, and ho-ly calm, Now and ev-er a-bides with me; He bids me to go and the sto-ry tell— What He ev-er to you will be, If

2. His look of com-pas-sion, His words of love, They shall never for-got-ten sea; And lo! at His word are the wa-ters stilled, Th-is Stran-ger of Gal-i-lee; A showed me His hand and His riv-en side, And He whis-pered, “It was for thee!” My peace-ful, a qui-et, and ho-ly calm, Now and ev-er a-bides with me; He bids me to go and the sto-ry tell— What He ev-er to you will be, If

3. I heard Him speak peace to the angry waves, Of that tur-bu-lent, rag-ing sea; I saw the great crowds as they thronged the way Of the Stranger of Galilee; - I saw the great crowds as they thronged the way Of the Stranger of Galilee; I saw how the man who was blind from birth, In a moment was made to see; The peace-ful, a qui-et, and ho-ly calm, Now and ev-er a-bides with me; He bids me to go and the sto-ry tell— What He ev-er to you will be, If

4. Come ye who are driv-en, and temp-est tossed, And His gra-cious salva-tion - The stranger was made whole by the match-less skill Of the Stranger of Gal-i-lee. - 4. Oh, my
