

There's a Friend That Abides

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1901

Hubert Platt Main

1. There's a friend that a - bides ev - er - more, And that friend is the Lord, my
2. There's a friend that a - bides ev - er - more, And I praise Him with loud ac -
3. There's a love that is strong as the hills That en - cir - cle His throne a - 4. There's a friend that a - bides ev - er - more, And a friend that I long to ev - er - more king; Of the peace I re - ceived, When His

- claim; For the life that is mine Through His
- bove; How it speaks to my soul When the see; O, the song that will break, When to my king;

Word I be - lieved, In the full - ness of joy I will sing, mer - cy di - vine; Still I sing in my joy, "Bless His name!" O dark bil - lows roll, And my heart sings for joy, "God is love!"
rap - ture I wake, And in glo - ry with Him I shall be!

come, quick - ly come! He is call - ing you to - day, O come to that friend so true; He will be your faith-ful guide, More than all the world be-side, And re-

- mem-ber He has died for you.

