1. It may not be for me to know Just where I can la - bor the best, But
 2. Per - haps the words that I may speak Will com - fort some sor - row - ing heart, And
 3. To - day, per - chance, a pre - cious soul Is out on the high - way of sin, That
 4. Yes, yes, some - where in this wide world A mis - sion I have to ful - fill; Then in my hum - ble way I'll try To lift up the weak and op - pressed.

 let the bless - ed sun - shine in Where once it was lone - ly and dark.
 I may clasp with friend - ly hand And bring to the bright fold a - gain.
 let me la - bor where God calls, And faith - ful - ly do His great will.

Refrain

Yes, there's a place for me, for me I know, Where I can help, can help by Yes, there's a work and a place for me, for me, I know, Where I can la - bor and help, can help by deed or word, Bring - ing the weak, the lost and per - ish - ing, In - to the deed or word, Bring - ing the err - ing, the weak, the lost and per - ish - ing, In - to the king - dom, king - dom of my bless - ed Lord.
