

Thine Can See

Mary Ann Pepper Kidder, 1879

Theodore Edson Perkins

$\text{♩} = 113$ %

1. Dear Sav - ior, all I think or do Thine eye can see; My
 2. Do clouds ob - scure my morn - ing sun? Thine eye can see; Do 3. When ev - ening sha - dows o'er me creep, Thine eye can see; When 4. If I will serve Thee day by day, Thine eye can see; If

D.S.—Thank

Fine

ma - ny wants, my tri - als, too, Thine eye can see; Wher - e'er I dwell it friends for - sake me, one by one? Thine eye can see; Have I no home, no on my pil - low calm I sleep, Thine eye can see; I thank Thee for Thy from Thy plea - sant paths I stray, Thine eye can see; Oh, take my heart, my God! what - ev - er be my lot, Thine eye can see.

mat - ters not, My home a pal - ace or a cot; Thank God! what - ev - er rest - ing place? Still o - pened are Thine arms of grace, The tear of sor - row watch - ful care, How sweet Thy ten - der love to share, And know that ev - ery will sub - due, And may I ev - er keep in view, That all I think and

Refrain D.S. % al Fine

be my lot, Thine eye can see.
 on my face Thine eye can see. Thine eye can see, Thine eye can see;
 grief I bear Thine eye can see.
 all I do Thine eye can see.