

To Glory or to Gloom?

Ella Parks Martin, 1903

♩ = 92

1. There's a gen - tle voice that's plead - ing with you, bro - ther, You have
 2. 'Tis a quest - ion you must an - swer, O my bro - ther, For the
 3. You are choos - ing in this sol - emn hour, my bro - ther, And your heard it at the morn - ing, night and noon; And it speaks to you to - day, as in judg - ment day is com - ing, sure and soon; You are stand - ing here to - day, at the choice may fix your soul's e - ter - nal doom; Je - sus waits for you to - day, point - ing paths of sin you stray; Are you go - ing on to glo - ry or to gloom? Go - ing on to glo - ry or to part - ing of the way; Are you go - ing on to glo - ry or to gloom?

 t'ward the nar - row way; Are you go - ing on to glo - ry or to gloom?

gloom? On to end - less joy or end - less doom? Bro - ther, hear the voice of God As He end - less doom?

speaks to you in love, Are you go - ing on to glo - ry or to gloom?
 end - less gloom?

