

Trusting and Hoping

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1889

William Howard Doane

$\text{♩} = 115$

1. I am re - joic - ing, trust - ing and hop - ing; Look - ing to Je - sus, Sav - ior di -
2. I am re - joic - ing, trust - ing and hop - ing; He is my Sav - ior; what shall I
3. I am re - joic - ing, trust - ing and hop - ing; In - to the man - sions wait - ing a -

- vine; He is my re - fuge; soft - ly He whis - pers, "I have re - fear? He like a shep - herd lead - eth me gent - ly, Close by the
- bove; Clothed in His bright - ness, He will re - ceive me, Heir to His

Refrain

- deemed thee, child, thou art Mine." I am re - joic - ing, ev - er re - wa - ters flow - ing so clear. I will re - joice, king - dom, child of His love.

- joic - ing, Trust - ing and hop - ing all the day long; Look - ing to ev - er re - oice Trust - ing in hope all the day, all the day long;

Je - sus, on - ly to Je - sus; He is my re - fuge, com - fort and song.
Look - ing to Him, on - ly to Him;