

We Have Heard

William H. Hyde, 1850

Composer Unknown

♩ = 93

The musical score is written in 6/8 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of three systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The vocal line is in treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is in bass clef. The lyrics are arranged in four numbered verses, with the first verse starting at the beginning of the first system and the fourth verse starting at the beginning of the third system. The lyrics are: 1. We have heard from the bright, the ho - ly land; We have 2. They say green fields are wav - ing there, That 3. We have heard of the palms, the robes, the crowns, And the 4. The King of that coun - try, He is fair, He's the heard, and our hearts are glad; For we were a lone - ly nev - er a blight shall know; And the de - serts wild are sil - ver - y band in white. Of the ci - ty fair, with jo - y and light of the place; In His beauty we shall be - pil - grim band, And wea - ry, and worn, and sad. They bloom - ing fair, And the ros - es of Shar - on grow. There are pear - ly gates, All r - a - di - ant with light. We have - hold Him there, And bask in His smil - ing face. We'll be tell us the saints have a dwell - ing there— No love - ly birds in the bow - ers green, Their heard of the an - gels there, and saints, With their there, we'll be there in a lit - tle while, We'll longer are home - less ones; And we know that the good - ly songs are blithe and sweet; And their warb - lings, gush - ing harps of gold, how they sing; Of the mount with the fruit - ful join the pure and the blest; We'll have the palm, the land is fair, Where life's pure riv - er runs. ev - er new, The an - gels' harp - ings greet.

 tree of life, Of the leaves that heal - ing bring.
 robe, the crown, And for - ev - er be at rest.

