We’ll Understand It Better By and By

Charles Albert Tindley, 1905

1. We are tossed and driv’n on the restless sea of time; Somber hearts are made to bleed for a thoughtless word or deed; And we

2. We are often destitute of the things that life demands, Want of food and want of shelter, thirsty hills and barren lands; We are

3. Trials dark on every hand, and we can not understand All the ways that God could lead us to that blesstèd promised land; But He

4. Temp tations, hidden snares oft en take us un a - wares, And our skies and how ling tempests oft suc ceed a bright sun shine; In that land of perfect day, when the mists have rolled a way, We will trust - ing in the Lord, and ac cord - ing to God’s Word, We will guides us with His eye, and we’ll follow till we die, For we’ll wonder why the test when we try to do our best, But we’ll un - der - stand it bet - ter by and by. By and by, when the morn ing comes, un - der - stand it bet - ter by and by. un - der - stand it bet - ter by and by.

When the saints of God are gathered home, We’ll tell the story how we’ve over-come, For we’ll understand it better by and by.
