

What a Morning That Will Be

Lucinda M. Beal Bateman, 1890

James Holmes Rosecrans

♩ = 105 Refrain

What a morn - ing that will be, Hal - le - lu - jah! What a morn - ing! What a morn - ing! When our eyes the King shall see, Hal - le - lu - jah! What a morn - ing that will be! 1. When all the clouds of dark - ness break, When 2. The dreams of earth will soon be o'er, And

Solo or Unison

 3. No wak - ing doubts, no dark'n - ing fears, No
 4. Oh, come a - way to that bright land, Beall the dead from dust a - wake, And all the just His death and sor - row come no more, When we a - wake on long good - byes in grief and tears, But joy su - preme thro'

 - fore the throne of God we'll stand, And sing with all the

Full Chorus

like - ness take, Oh, what a morn - ing that will be! yon fair shore, Oh, what a morn - ing that will be! Then, a - end - less years, Oh, what a morn - ing that will be!
 ran - somed band, Oh, what a morn - ing that will be!

- wake and swell the song, Hal - le - lu - jah! Joy - ful notes of praise pro - long, Hal - le -

- lu - jah! When we join the ran - somed throng, Hal - le - lu - jah! What a day of love and peace that will be.