1. We shall do so much in the years to come, But what have we done to - day? We shall
2. We shall be so kind in the aft - er - while, But what have we been to - day? We shall
3. We shall reap such joys in the by and by, But what have we sown to - day? We shall give our gold in a prince-ly sum, But what did we give to - day? We shall bring to each lone - ly life a smile, But what have we brought to - day? We shall build us man - sions in the sky, But what have we built to - day? 'Tis lift the heart, and dry the tear, We shall plant a hope in the place of fear, We shall give to truth a grand - er birth, And to stead-fast faith a deep-er worth, We shall sweet in i - dle dreams to bask, But here and now do we do our task? Yes, this speak the words of love and cheer, But what did we speak to - day? feed the hunger - ing souls of earth, But whom have we fed to - day?

is the thing our souls must ask— "O, what have we done to - day?"
