

Who's on the Lord's Side?

Sophia T. Griswold, 1870

Philip Paul Bliss

$\text{♩} = 103$

1. We're march - ing to Ca - naan, with ban - ner and song, We're
 2. The sword may be bur - nished, the ar - mor be bright, For
 3. Who is there a - mong us yet un - der the rod, Who 4. Oh, heed not the sor - row, the pain and the wrong, For sol - diers en - list - ed to fight 'gainst the wrong; But, Sa - tan ap - pears as an an - gel of light; Yet knows not the par - don - ing mer - cy of God? Oh, soon shall our sigh - ing be changed in - to song; So, lest in the con - flict our strength should di - vide, We dark - ly the bo - som may treach - er - y hide, While bring to Him hum - bly the heart in its pride; Oh, bear - ing the cross of our co - ve - nant Guide, We'll

Refrain
 ask, "Who a - mong us is on the Lord's side?"
 lips are pro - fess - ing, "I'm on the Lord's side." Oh, haste, while He's wait - ing and seek the Lord's side. shout, as we tri - umph, "I'm on the Lord's side."

who is there a - mong us, the true and the tried, Who'll stand by His col-ors— who's on the Lord's side? Oh, who is there a - mong us, the true and the tried, Who'll stand by His col-ors— who's on the Lord's side?

