Yesterday, Today, Forever

Albert Benjamin Simpson, 1890

1. O how sweet the glorious message simple faith may claim
2. He, who was the friend of sinners, seeks the lost one now
3. Oft on earth He healed the sufferer by His mighty hand
4. As of old He walked to Emmaus, with them to abide Yesterday, today, forever Jesus is the same.

Sinner come, and at His footstool penitently bow
Still our sicknesses and sorrows go at His command
So through all life's way He walketh ever near our side

Still He loves to save the sinful, heal the sick and lame
He Who said "I'll not condemn thee, go and sin no more."
He who gave His healing virtue to a woman's touch
Soon again we shall behold Him, Hasten Lord the day

Cheer the mourner, still the tempest, glory to His Name.
Speaks to thee that word of pardon as in days of yore.
To the faith that claims His fullness still will give as much. Yes-ter-day, to-
But twill still be this same Jesus as He went away.

day, forever, Jesus is the same. All may change, but Jesus never!

Glory to His name! Glor to His name! Glor to His name! All may change, but Jesus never! Glor to His name!
