We Give Thee but Thine Own

1 We give Thee but thine own, what e'er the gift may be:
   all that we have is thine alone, a trust, O Lord, from thee.
2 May we thy bounties thus as stewards true receive, and glad ly, as thou blessest us, to thee our first fruits give.
   to find a balm for woe, to tend the lone and fatherless is angels' work below.
3 To comfort and to bless, to find a balm for bring, to teach the way of life and peace it is a Christ-like thing.
   the captive to relieve, to God the lost to be:
4 The captive to relieve, to God the lost to teach, the way of life and peace— it is a Christ-like thing.
   what e'er for thine we do.
5 And we believe thy word, though dim our faith may be:
   though dim our faith may be:
