Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee

1. Joyful, joyful, we adore thee, God of glory, 2. All thy works with joy surround thee, earth and heaven re-
3. Thou art giving and forgiving, ever blessing, 4. Mortals, join the mighty chorus which the morning

Lord of love; hearts unfold like flowers before thee, flect thy rays, stars and angels sing around thee, ever blest, well-spring of the joy of living, stars begun; love divine is reigning over us, opening to the sun above. Melt the clouds of center of unbroken praise. Field and forest, ocean depth of happy rest! Thou our Father, bounding all within its span. Ever singing, sin and sadness; drive the dark of doubt away. Gi-vale and mountain, flowery meadow, flashing sea, chan Christ our brother, all who live in love are thine; teach march we onward, victors in the midst of strife; joy-ver of immortal gladness, ting bird and flowing fountain, ful music leads us onward, fill us with the light of day! call us to rejoice in thee. lift us to the joy divine.

in the triumph song of life.
