O God, Our Help in Ages Past

1. O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.
2. Under the shadow of thy throne, still may we dwell secure; arm a-lone, and our defense is sure.
3. Before the hills in order stood, or earth received her cure; thou art God, to endless years the same.
4. A thousand ages, in thy sight, are like an evening gone; and the wise man's days are as many days.
5. Time, like an ever rolling stream, bears all who breathe a way; they fly for got ten,
6. O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come; be thou our guide while we are weak.
