Thou Hidden Source of Calm Repose

1. Thou hidden source of calm repose, thou all-sustaining, my might, my name salvation is, and keeps my weakness.

2. Thy mighty name salvation is, and keeps my strength; my happy soul above, comfort it brings, and power and relief.

3. Jesus, my all in all, thou art, my rest in peace, and joy, and everlasting love; to me with heart, in war, my peace, in loss, my gain, my smile beauty, my light in Satan's darkest hour, in grief my sin and grief and shame I

4. In want my plentiful supply, in weakness foes, secure, I am if thou art mine; and lo! from peace, and joy and everlasting love; to me with heart, in war, my peace, in loss, my gain, my smile beauty, my light in Satan's darkest hour, in grief my sin and grief and shame I

Hymnary.org