1. Ah, holy Jesus, how hast thou offended,
2. Who was the guiltiness? Who brought this upon thee?
3. Lo, the Good Shepherd for the sheep is offered;
4. For me, kind Jesus, was thy incarnation, 5. Therefore, kind Jesus, since I cannot pay thee, that we to judge thee have in hate pretended? By A - las, my treasure, Jesus, hath undone thee! 'Twas the slave hath sinned, and the Son hath suffered. For thy mortal sorrow, and thy life's oblation; thy I do adore thee, and will ever pray thee, think foes despatched, by thine own recovery I, Lord Jesus, I it was deemed our atonement, while we nothing death of anguish and thy bitter on thy pity and thy love un jected, O most afflicted thee. ned thee; I crucified thee.

heed ed, God interceded.
passion, for my salvation.
swer ving, not my deserving.

Hymnary.org