The Head That Once Was Crowned

1. The head that once was crowned with thorns is crowned with glory now; a royal dignity

2. The highest place that heaven affords belongs to him by right; the King of kings and

3. The joy of all who dwell above, the joy of all below, to whom he manifold

4. To them the cross with all its shame, with all its grace, is given; their name an eternal

5. They suffer with their Lord below; they reign with him above; their profit and their

6. The cross he bore is life and health, though shame and death to him, his people's hope, his demands the mighty victor's brow.
Lord of lords, and heaven's eternal light. fests his love, and grants his name to know.
lasting name, their joy the joy of heaven.
joy to know the mystery of his love.
people's wealth, their everlasting theme.

Hymnary.org