1. Blessed Jesus, at Thy word we are gathered
2. All our knowledge, sense, and sight lie in deepest 3. Glorious Lord, thyself impart! Light of light, from all to hear thee; let our hearts and souls be stirred darkness shrouded, till thy spirit breaks our night God proceeding, open thou our ears and heart;

now to seek and love and fear thee, by thy teachings with the beams of truth unclouded. Thou alone to help us by thy spirit's pleading; hear the cry thy sweet and holy, drawn from earth to love thee solely.

God canst win us; thou must work all good within us.
people raises; hear, and bless our prayers and praises.
