Come, Let Us Join Our Friends Above

1. Come, let us join our friends above, who have obtained the prize, and on the eagle wings of love to bove, beneath, though now divided by the stream, the
2. One family we dwell in him, one church a mo-ment fly, and we are to the margin come, and
3. Ten thousand to their endless home this solemn glory crowned, and shout to see our Captain's sign, to 4. Our spirits too shall quickly join, like theirs with joys celestial rise. Let saints on earth our hands with those that went before, and greet the

Text: Charles Wesley, 1759
Tune: Trad. English melody;
arr. Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1906

www.hymnary.org/text/come_let_us_join_our_friends_above

This hymn is in the public domain. You may freely use this score for personal and congregational worship. If you reproduce the score, please credit Hymnary.org as the source.
Hosts, the blood of our King in earth and heaven are one.
Hosts, the blood be sprinkled bands on the eternal shore.

Servants of our King in earth and heaven are one.
Servants of our King in earth and heaven are one.

Now, the waves divide, and land us all in heaven.