1. O day of God, draw nigh in beauty and in

2. Bring to our troubled minds, uncertain and a-

3. Bring justice to our land, that all may dwell se-

4. Bring to our world of strife thy sovereign word of

5. O day of God, draw nigh as at creation's power; come with thy timeless fraid, the quiet of a cure, and finely build for peace, that war may haunt the birth; let there be light a-judgment now to match our present hour.

steadfast faith, calm of a call obeyed.

days to come foundations that endure.

earth no more, and desolation cease.

gain, and set thy judgments on the earth.