Take My Life, and Let It Be Consecrated

D.C. for Refrain

1. Take my life, and let it be Consecrated,
2. Take my feet, and let them be Swift and
craved, Lord, to Thee;
beautiful for Thee;
bewitching, I would withhold;
be no longer mine;
ever more to be;

3. Take my silver and my gold, Not a
craved, Lord, to Thee;
beautiful for Thee;
bewitching, I would withhold;
be no longer mine;
ever more to be;

4. Take my will, and make it Thine, It shall
craved, Lord, to Thee;
beautiful for Thee;
bewitching, I would withhold;
be no longer mine;
ever more to be;

Lord, I give my life to Thee, Thine forever to be.

D.C. for Refrain

At the impulse of thy love.
Always, only, for my King.
Let them flow in ceaseless praise.
It shall be Thy royal throne.
Thine forever to be.

Hymnary.org