All Glory, Laud, and Honor

King, to whom the lips of children made high; and we with all creation in praise; to you, now high exalted, our sweet hosannas ring. You are the King of choirs make reply. The people of the melody we raise. As you received their Isaiah and David's royal Son, now He brews with palms before you went; our praises, accept the prayers we bring, for in the Lord's name coming, the praise and prayer and anthems be-you delight in goodness, O King and Blessed One. good and gracious King!