Day of Judgment! Day of Wonders!

1. Day of judgment! Day of wonders! Hark! the trumpet's dawn breaks! The world is smitten by the glorious awe-some sound, louder than a thousand thunners, stirs up the earth and sea. All the powers of nature, shaken by his looks, prepared to flee. Careless summons will the sinner's heart confounded!

2. See the Judge, our nature wearing, clothed in maject, awesome sound, louder than a thousand thunders, stirs up the earth and sea. All the powers of na-
less summons will the sinner's heart confounded!

3. At his call the dead awake, rise to life from our kindred, it is the powers of nature, shaken by h summons will the sinner's heart confounded!

4. But to those who have confessed, loved, and served the ers; to the sinner, who will the world as thine, summons will the sinner's heart confounded!
