

The Swelling of Jordan

Georgianna A. Hulse McLeod, 1880

Robert Lowry

♩=95

1. What wilt thou do in the swell-ing of Jor - dan, Bold - ly re - ject - ing the
 2. This side the riv - er, friends near - est and dear - est Leave thee to go on thy
 3. But in thy wan - derings He fol - lows thee ev - er, Seek - ing to win thee by
 4. Life's sun is set - ting, and dark - ness is near - ing; Too late to - mor - row thy

Lamb that was slain, Scorn - ing the grief in Geth - sem - a - ne's gar - den, Let - ting Him jour - ney a - lone; If in the val - ley of sha - dow thou fear - est, Cling to the night and by day; Hear His sweet prom - ise, "I'll nev - er, no, nev - er Leave thee to plead - ing may be; Tell Him thy sor - row, and trust Him, un - fear - ing; He who saved

Refrain

suf - fer and die all in vain?
 hand of the Cru - ci - fied One. Soon in the mid - night thy soul He'll be call - ing; Who then can per - ish, for I am the Way.," sin - ners will save ev - en thee.

save thee from dan - ger ap - pall - ing? Too late to plead then for mer - cy and par - don! What wilt thou do? What wilt thou do? What wilt thou do in the swell - ing of Jor - dan?