

The Coming of the King

Rebecca Smith Pollard, 1901

Daniel Brink Towner

♩=87

1. Are you wait - ing for the com - ing of the King? Have your lives been purged of all their sin and
 2. Are you wait - ing for the com - ing of the King? Are you rea - dy in your hearts and in your
 3. Are you list - ening for the com - ing of the King? Have your sins tho' scar - let all been blot - ted 4. Are you watch - ing for the com - ing of the King? For the light to break re - splend - ent in the dross? With the heal - ing blood ap - plied, Can you praise the Cru - ci - fied For your homes? Are you long - ing for the day When the mists shall roll a - way And re - out? Are they spot - less robes you wear For the meet - ing in the air When des - east? For the gates to o - pen wide When the Bride - groom with His bride Shall as - glo - ri - ous re - demp - tion thro' the cross?

Refrain

 - veal the Lord of glo - ry when He comes? Are you look - ing for the King? For the
 - cend - ing hosts pro - claim Him with a shout?
 - cend to cel - e - brate the mar - riage feast?

com - ing of the King? Are your lamps all trimmed and burn - ing while He waits? Can you join the ran - somed throug In their grand, tri - umph - ant song, As the shin - ing ones come sweep - ing thro' the gates?