

Consider Him

Harold Green (1871-1930)

The first system of musical notation for 'Consider Him' is in 4/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The treble staff begins with a treble clef, a sharp sign, and a 4/4 time signature. The bass staff begins with a bass clef, a sharp sign, and a 4/4 time signature. The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with chords and single notes. A measure rest is indicated by a large '8' in the treble staff at the end of the first system. A measure number '5' is placed above the fifth measure of the treble staff.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The treble staff begins with a treble clef, a sharp sign, and a 4/4 time signature. The bass staff begins with a bass clef, a sharp sign, and a 4/4 time signature. The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with chords and single notes. A measure rest is indicated by a large '8' in the treble staff at the end of the second system. A measure number '10' is placed above the tenth measure of the treble staff.

The third system of musical notation concludes the piece. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The treble staff begins with a treble clef, a sharp sign, and a 4/4 time signature. The bass staff begins with a bass clef, a sharp sign, and a 4/4 time signature. The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with chords and single notes. A measure rest is indicated by a large '8' in the treble staff at the end of the third system. A measure number '15' is placed above the fifteenth measure of the treble staff.

“Consider Him,” let Christ thy pattern be,
And know that He hath apprehended thee
To share His very life, His pow’r divine,
And in the likeness of thy Lord to shine.

“Consider Him“; so shalt thou, day by day,
Seek out the lowliest place, and therein stay,
Content to pass away, a thing of nought,
That glory to the Father’s name be brought.

Shrink not, O child of God, but fearless go
Down into death with Jesus; thou shalt know
The power of an endless life begin,
With glorious liberty from self and sin.

“Consider Him,” and thus thy life shall be
Filled with self-sacrifice and purity;
God will work out in thee the pattern true,
And Christ’s example ever keep in view.

“Consider Him,” and as you run the race,
Keep ever upward looking in His face;
And thus transformed, illumined thou shalt be,
And Christ’s own image shall be seen in thee.

Emily May Grimes
