

O let us rejoice in the Lord

Albert B. Simpson, 1904

The image shows a piano accompaniment score for the hymn 'O let us rejoice in the Lord'. It consists of four systems of music, each with a treble and bass clef staff. The key signature is three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The score includes measure numbers 5, 10, and 15. The music features a steady accompaniment with chords and moving lines in both hands.

O let us rejoice in the Lord evermore,
Though all things around us be trying,
Though floods of affliction like sea billows roar,
It's better to sing than be sighing.

Refrain

*Then rejoice evermore, rejoice evermore,
It is better to sing than be sighing:
It is better to live than be dying;
So let us rejoice evermore.*

O let us rejoice in the Lord evermore,
When the darts of the tempter are flying,
For Satan still dreads, as he oft did of yore,
Our singing much more than our sighing.

Refrain

O let us rejoice in the Lord evermore,
When sickness upon us is stealing,
No cordial like gladness our strength can restore,
For joy is the fountain of healing.

Refrain

O let us rejoice in the Lord evermore,
For His love is love everlasting.
When we dwell with Him in the heavenly places,
There will be no more sighing and sorrow.

Refrain
