

Welcome Home

Nell Ray, 1922

Noble W. Ridgeway

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. Wel - come home, O wan - dering child, Leave sin's moun - tain dark and wild; Hear the
2. Wel - come home— O words of cheer, Fall - ing on the sin - ner's ear; Ful - ly
3. Wel - come home, the Sav - ior stands With ex - tend - ed, plead - ing hands; Will you

Fa - ther's voice now bidd - ing you re - turn! World - ly plea - sures are but vain, In their trust in Him, the on - ly re - fuge true! Who - so - ev - er will may come Un - to tar - ry, and His heart so ten - der grieve? There is dan - ger if you wait, Since the midst, O why re - main? En - ter now the nar - row way, its rap - ture learn!

Refrain
par - don, love, and home, And be hap - py thro' His won - drous grace a - new. Do you hear the in - vi - hour is grow - ing late, Come to - day, be - hind you sin and sor - row leave. Do you hear

- ta - tion: "Wel - come home, O wan - dering child!" For your soul there's free sal - in - vi - ta - tion; "Wel - come home O wan - dering child" For your soul

- va - tion, Wel - come home to - day, O wea - ry, wan - dering child.
free sal - va - tion O wan - dering child!