

Coming Home (Dimmitt)

J. P. Dimmitt, 1887

William James Kirkpatrick

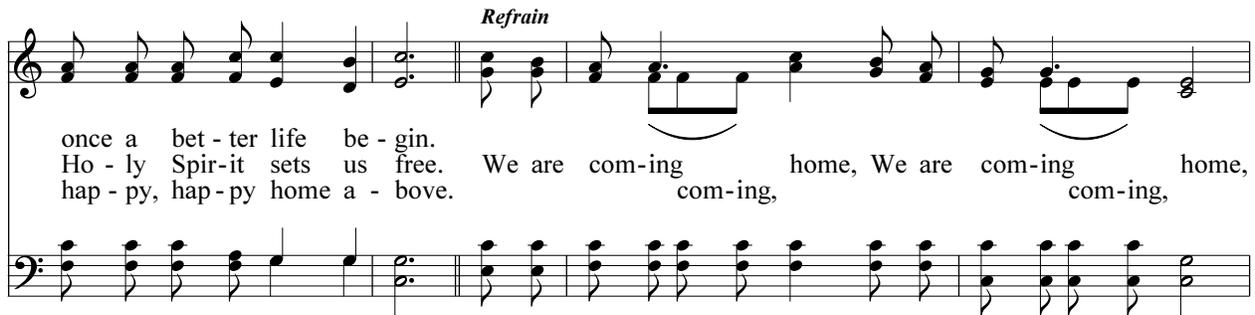

♩=95

1. We have wan - dered far a - way from our Fa - ther's home, In the
2. We are com - ing now by faith, by the Spir - it led, We are
3. We have kin - dred gone be - fore, to the heaven - ly home, And they dark and drea-ry paths of sin; But we hear our Sav-ior's voice call-ing us to come, And at com-ing with our hearts to Thee; We are trust-ing in the blood that for us was shed, And the draw us by the chords of love; They are call-ing us to - day, call-ing us to come, To the

Refrain

once a bet - ter life be - gin.
Ho - ly Spir-it sets us free. We are com-ing home, We are com-ing home, hap - py, hap - py home a - bove. com-ing, com-ing,

Com - ing home to - day; We have heard Thy lov - ing voice, Bless - èd com - ing, to - day,

Sav-ior, and re-joice; We are com-ing home to - day.