For All the Saints

Text: William W. How (1823-1897)
Tune: Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)

1 For all the saints who from their labors rest, who
Thou wast their rock, their for tress, and their might; thou,
But lo! there breaks a yet more glorious day; the
From earth's wide bounds and ocean's farthest coast, through

5 thee by faith be fore the world confessed, thy Lord, their cap tain in the well fought fight; saints tri um phant rise in bright ar ray; the gates of pearl stream in the count less host,

9 name, O Je sus, be for ever blest.
thou in the dark ness drear, their one true light.
King sing - ing to glo - ry pas ses on - his way.
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost:

13 Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

Harmony, verses 3 and 4

3 O blest communion, fellowship divine!
4 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,

We feebly struggle, they in glory shine.

Yet all are brave again and arms are strong.

Alleluia! Alleluia!
