

Christ Is Ready to Welcome

B. A. Strong, 1917

Samuel William Beazley

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. Christ is rea - dy to wel - come ev - ery need - y heart, Ev - ery
2. Not a - lone to the wealth - y did the Mas - ter speak, Not a -
3. Come to - day with your trou - bles, come with all your sin, On His sin - ner for - giv - en may be; Peace and com - fort and glad - ness He will

- lone to the poor who were nigh; But to all who had wan - dered and were love cast your grief and your care; He is wait - ing to make you white as now im - part Un - to all who will an - swer His plea. lost and weak, Did His sweet "who - so - ev - er" ap - ply. When He said "Who - so - ev - er," He in - snow with - in, Wait - ing now all your bur - dens to bear.

Refrain

- clud - ed you and me, And I am glad, so glad, I am glad; so glad; When He said "Who - so - ev - er," He meant all who would be free, And I am glad, so glad, I am glad. so glad