

He Is Coming Soon

Robert D. Burleson & Johnson Oatman, Jr., 1920

Robert Dean Burleson

$\text{♩} = 92$

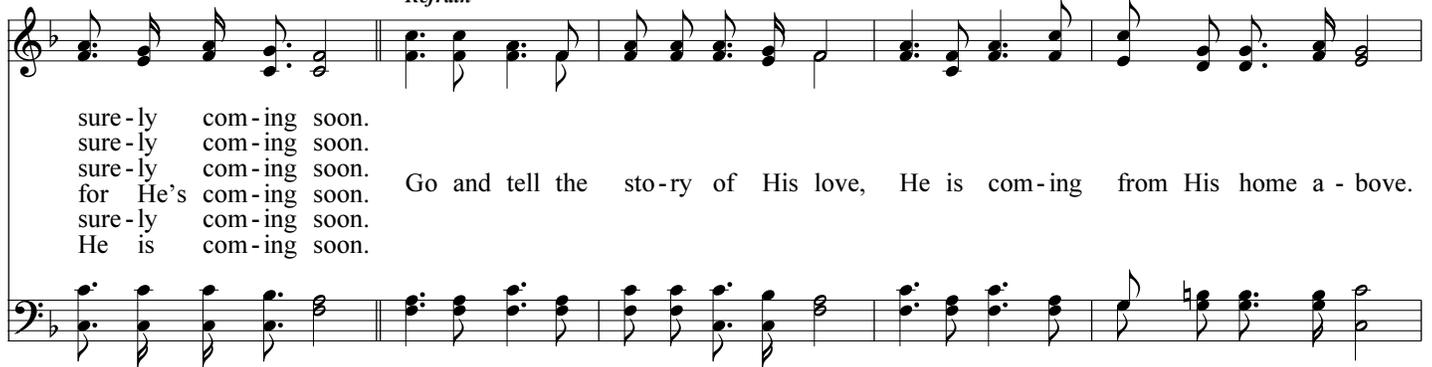

1. Have you heard the story of the Lamb once slain? He is coming soon,
2. 'Tis the sweetest story ever mortal heard, "He is coming soon,
3. I am watching for Him every day and hour, For He's coming soon,
4. There will be no sorrow, there will be no tears, When the Savior comes,
5. Be prepared to meet Him, robed in garments white, He is coming soon,
6. We shall rise to meet Him, with our loved ones there; He is coming soon,

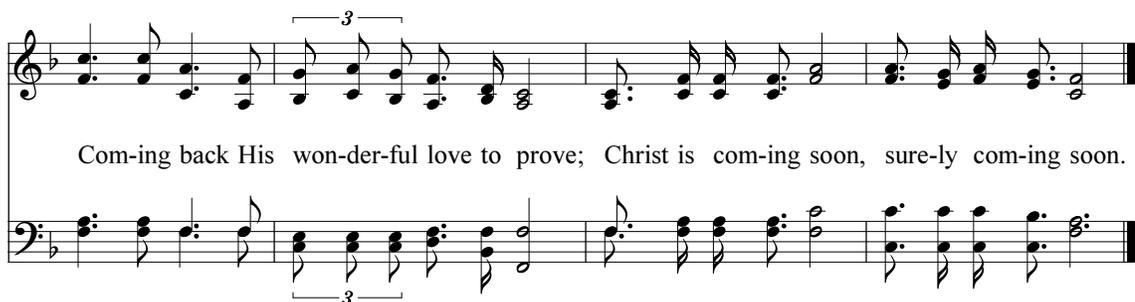

He is coming soon; Christ the King of Glo - ry, o'er the earth to reign, And He's com - ing soon, sure-ly com-ing soon." Cheer-ing is the prom-ise in His pre - cious Word, He is com - ing soon, sure-ly com-ing soon; No more as a ba - by, but in king-ly power— Christ is com - ing soon, and He's com-ing soon; O'er the earth our king will reign a thou-sand years, O pre - pare for Him, sure-ly com-ing soon; If you are not rea - dy, seek the Lord to - night, For He's com - ing soon, sure-ly com-ing soon; When we hear the trum-pet sound-ing in the air, And it won't be long,

Refrain

sure-ly com-ing soon.
sure-ly com-ing soon.
sure-ly com-ing soon. Go and tell the sto-ry of His love, He is com-ing from His home a - bove.
for He's com-ing soon.
sure-ly com-ing soon.
He is com-ing soon.

Com-ing back His won-der-ful love to prove; Christ is com-ing soon, sure-ly com-ing soon.