 3. Come all who are wan-der-ing, foot-sore and wea-ry, Come trust in His love, 'tis so drear-y and cold; When gent-ly I heard a sweet voice to me call-ing, "Oh list-en to Me; My love hath re-deemed thee, Oh come back, dear lost one, My bound-less and free; Oh hear His sweet voice as 'tis now gent-ly call-ing, "Oh come back, thou lost one, come in-to the fold." love hath re-deemed thee, Oh come un-to Me." Come home, come home, The come back, My loved one, Oh come un-to Me." Come home, come home, Sav-ior is watch-ing for thee; Oh list to the voice that so sweet-ly is call-ing, "My love hath re-deemed thee, Oh come un-to Me."
