

The Shepherd's Fold

John Michael Bowman, 1904

I. T. Davis

♩=88

1. Far, far a - way from the Shep-herd's care, Out on the moun-tains cold and
2. The Shep-herd said, "Though the way is steep, I go to res - cue My lost
3. The Shep-herd found the lamb once lost, That o'er the bar - ren hills had
4. A sin - ner out in the des - ert cold, Was wan-dering far from the Shep-herd's bare, There one had strayed from the shel - tering fold, And wan - dered far from the gates of sheep"; Out on the des - ert far a - way, He hast - ens while 'tis yet to-crossed; He took it in His ten - der arms, And shel - tered it from des - ert fold; Through chill-ing winds of sin's long night, Re - deemed at last by Gos - pel

Refrain

gold.
- day.
storms. There ma-ny lay in the Shep-herd's fold, While one was far from the gates of gold; Out on the light.

des-ert, through sin's dark night, Wan-dered a - far till the morn-ing light.