

Good People, Give Ear

James Barmby, before 1917

John Swire

$\text{♩} = 96$

1. Good peo - ple, give ear, As we sing loud and clear Our song of a Christ-mas
 2. O list, young and old, As we sing in the cold, Our song of a Christ-mas
 3. A - wake ye, and hear For your sol - ace and cheer, Our song of a Christ-mas
 4. O hear, great and small— A - nd God bless you all— Our song of a Christ-mas
 5. Now peace to you all And de - liv - erance from thrall On this bless-ed Christ-mas

$\text{♩} = 112$

morn - ing. In Jew - ry of old, As the pro - phets fore - told, A morn - ing. It was cold on the plains, Where a few sil - ly swains Were morn - ing. A - non were they 'ware That an an - gel stood there, And morn - ing. There came in due time From a far eas - tern clime Certain morn - ing. Our sto - ry is told, You have heard it of old, We glo - ry came down to the earth: And an - gels on high Sang loud from the sky, So watch-ing their flocks in the night; But a glo - ry shone round, And sweet mu - sic did sound, And the "Fear not," said he, "nor be sad; For a Sav - ior is born To a world that was lorn, And wise men led on by a star; Their gifts they un - rolled, Myrrh, in - cense, and gold, And sing the same song ev - ery year; But it ev - er is new To hearts that are true: May

rall.

we may have glad - ness and mirth.
 wel - kin was filled with de - light.
 there-fore ye all may be glad."
 bore the glad tid - ings a - far.
 God of His grace send you cheer!