

Jesus Our Blessèd Redeemer

W. H. McNamee, 1875

Robert Lowry

$\text{♩} = 96$

1. We're march-ing in the ar-my with shield and ban-ner bright; Joy-ful-ly sing as we're
2. A feast of love is Je-sus, a ban-quet of de-light; Joy-ful-ly sing as we're
3. O jas-per walls of Zi-on, thou ci-ty ev-er fair! Joy-ful-ly sing as we're go-ing To Ca-naan's hap-py ci-ty of glo-ry and of light, Where go-ing; The ci-ty of His dwell-ing is bathed in glo-ry bright, Where go-ing; Be-yond the Jor-dan's roll-ing thy beau-ty we shall share, Where love from the foun-tain is flow-ing; To Je-sus our Sav-ior glad voic-es we'll raise, A love from the foun-tain is flow-ing; Be-fore Him we'll wor-ship, up-on Him we'll gaze, And love from the foun-tain is flow-ing; At home with our Sav-ior, in joy and in praise, With song of sal-va-tion, sweet an-thems of praise, To Him who hath saved us, the stand in the beau-ti-ful courts of His praise, With Him who hath saved us, the voic-es an-gel-ic, ho-san-nas we'll raise With Him who hath saved us, the

An-cient of Days, Je-sus our bless-èd Re-deem-er.
An-cient of Days, Je-sus our bless-èd Re-deem-er.
An-cient of Days, Je-sus our bless-èd Re-deem-er.