

Praise the Lord for Victory

Roger Mills Hickman, 1916

Homer Alexander Hammtree

♩=96

1. There's a song with - in my heart, I am sing - ing ev - ery day, Since the
2. All the fear of sin and death, All the ter - rors of the grave, Were for -
3. In the dark - ened shades of night, When the temp - ter shall as - sail, I may
4. Yes, I know in whom I trust, And I know He will up - hold, For His Lord has washed all my sins a - way; With His power to o - ver - come, For His

- ev - er lost when His life He gave; For He rose a - gain to life And is fly to Him who will ne - ver fail; He has prom - ised if we trust, We may love is true, and His power un - told; We shall reign with Him as kings, When His

Refrain

glo - ry I can say, Praise the Lord for vic - to - ry! a - ble now to save, Praise the Lord for vic - to - ry! There is vic - tory ev - ery day, There is in His name pre - vail, Praise the Lord for vic - to - ry!
glo - ry shall un - fold, Praise the Lord for vic - to - ry!

vic - tory all the way, Let us shout and sing, Let His prais - es ring! Since my sins are washed a - way, I'm re -

- joic - ing ev - ery day, Praise the Lord for vic - to - ry!