

The Word of Faith

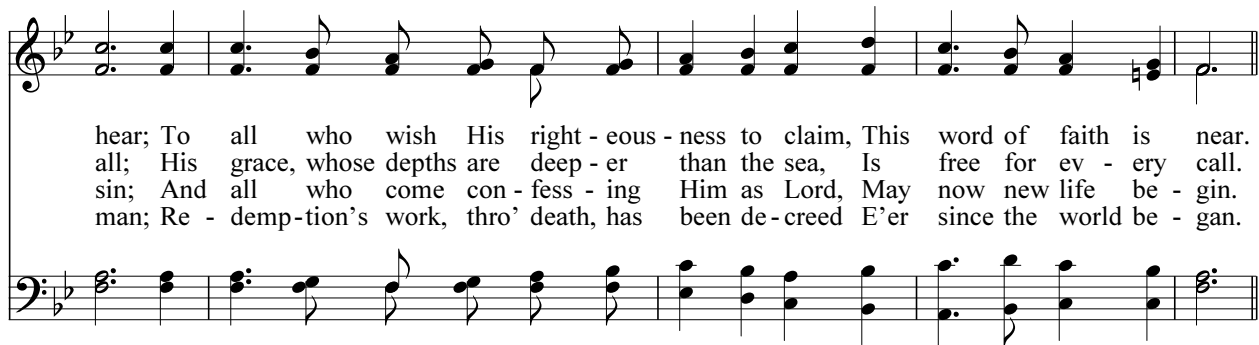

Roger Mills Hickman, 1915

Roger Mills Hickman

♩=108

1. The glor - ious Gos - pel of the Son of God Is free to all who
2. His word is sure, His prom - ise can - not fail, His love ex - tends to
3. 'Twas not the right - eous Je - sus came to call, But sin - ners dead in
4. That great word, "who - so - ev - er will may come," In - cludes the whole of hear; To all who wish His right - eous - ness to claim, This word of faith is near.

all; His grace, whose depths are deep - er than the sea, Is free for ev - ery call.
sin; And all who come con - fess - ing Him as Lord, May now new life be - gin.
man; Re - demp - tion's work, thro' death, has been de - creed E'er since the world be - gan.

Refrain

If thou shalt con - fess Him as your Lord, And be - lieve that God hath raised Him from the dead, Thou shalt be saved, thou shalt be saved.

Thou shalt be saved.