

Follow Thou Me

Ida Ronyon Finlay, 1871, alt.

John Henry Kurzenknabe, 1882

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. Have ye looked for the sheep in the de - sert, For those who have lost their way? Have ye
2. Have you fo - ld - ed home to your bo - som The trem - bling, ne - glect - ed lamb? And
3. Have ye car - ried the liv - ing wa - ters To the parchèd and thirst - y soul? Have ye
4. Have ye wept with the brok - en heart - ed In their a - go - ny of woe? Ye might been in the wild wast - ed plac - es, Where the lost and the wan - dering stray? Have ye taught the lit - tle loved one The sound of the Shep - herd's name? Have ye said to the sick and the wound - ed, "Christ J - e - sus makes thee whole"? Have ye hear Me whisper be - side you, 'Tis a path - way I oft - en go. My dis - trod - den the lone - ly high - way, Or the foul and the dark - some street? It may searched for the poor and need - y, With no cloth - ing, no home, no bread? The to - ld My faint - ing child - ren, Of the strength of My Fa - ther's hand? Have ye

- ci - ples, My breth - ren, My friends, Can you da - re to fol - low Me? Then, wher - be that you'd see, in the gloam - ing, The print of My wound - ed feet.

Son of Man was a - mong them, He had no - where to lay His head.
- guided the tot - ter - ing foot - steps To the shore of the "gold - en land"?
ever the M - as - ter dwell - eth, There sh - all the ser - vant be.